CAPTAIN THOMAS WHITE

CAPTAIN THOMAS WHITE was born in England, the exact date of his birth is unknown, no records having come down to us, either of his birth or of his age at the time of his death.

It is of record that he came to America in 1630, for in that year we find him as a citizen of Weymouth, Mass. An early writer has stated that he was a son of William White, who came over in the Mayflower and who according to family tradition left his son Thomas in England to be educated. It is probable that he came to Plymouth when about twenty-one years of age, settling in Weymouth, in or near which place he was married. There is no record as to the name of his wife or where she came from or the date of her death or place of burial, but it is undoubtedly true that she was of Weymouth and that she died and was buried there.

That he was possessed of some means is evidenced by the fact that in 1635 he was made a Freeman of Weymouth. (This title was only given to citizens who had the necessary property, land or money, qualifications, except Ministers and Civil Officers of the King.)

In 1635 he was designated in the records as Captain Thomas White and was in command of a Military Company for the maintenance of peace with the Indians. This was an office of great responsibility, to which only men of known courage and good judgment were eligible.

That he was an educated forceful man is proven by the fact that year after year he was elected to represent the town of Weymouth in the General Court at Boston, serving in that capacity from 1637 to 1657 continuously, and again for one term in 1671.

It seems that in all the affairs of the town he was prominent and took an important part, as he held many offices of trust and responsibility. He represents the beginning in this country of a family whose descendants from the earliest days down to the present have been conspicuous in the development of our country. He died at Weymouth in August, 1679.

Children:

2. JOSEPH, b. —.
3. Hannah, b. —, m. John Baxter of Quincy, Mass., Sept. 24, 1659.
4. Samuel, b. —, m. Mary Dyer of Weymouth.
5. THOMAS, b. —.
6. EBENEZER, b. 1648.

2. JOSEPH WHITE, married Lydia Rogers, Sept. 19, 1660, at Weymouth, Mass. He died March 23, 1706. She died May 8, 1727. He and his wife went to Mendon, Mass., in 1662, in which year he had an allotment of land in that town. He had another lot laid out to him in July, 1663, which was renewed in Dec. of the same year. At about this time the settlement was broken up by Indians, (it was then known as a plantation called Sgahapange, first settled Oct. 16, 1660, by people from Braintree, Mass., they having petitioned the General Court for an allotment of a Township). Joseph White and his family returning to Weymouth, where they remained a few years, and then with other settlers again made their home at Mendon. He was given a thirty-five acre lot when the Town was organized May 15, 1667, and on July 14 of the same year, he was one of a Committee to divide the "Meadow Lands."

On May 11, 1669, Joseph White was elected Surveyor for the town, and on May 19, he is on a committee to purchase lands of the Indians.

In 1670, he was one of a "Committee to settle, as Minister, the Rev. Joseph Emerson, from Wells, Maine." On Jan. 1, 1673, he is called Sergeant Joseph White, and is elected Selectman. On Nov. 15, 1675, Sergeant Joseph White is in command of a company of Scouts in "King Philip's War."

On May 25, 1685, he signs a petition to the General Court at Boston, asking for effectual laws to stop the sale of liquors to the Indians.

He was a Sergeant in the Local Military Company on Jan. 3, 1686, when he was elected Selectman, which office he also held in Jan., 1689, in which year he was called Captain. On Jan. 25, 1689, he is assessed two pounds, 4 shillings and one penny, as his share of the Minister's salary, from Oct. 25, 1688, to that date.

On Feb. 19, 1691, he with others, buys a large tract of land, from the Indians. On July 17, 1694, he was elected Assessor of Taxes, but resigned. In 1693, he was assessed for taxes to pay town debts incurred between 1685 and 1693. The Town records of Mendon mention him many times during his life as Grantee in the purchase of lands, and as being assessed taxes for town purposes, and for special taxes to pay the Minister's salary. His wife was Lydia Rogers, daughter of John Rogers. [There has been a question as to whom John Rogers married. Deane in his history of Scituate, Mass., states that he married Ann Churchman, at Weymouth, Mass., April 16, 1639: have a daughter Lydia Rogers, born March 27, 1642; who married Joseph White, Sept. 19, 1660. In the absence of any other evidence it is easily possible that Ann Churchman was his 1st or his 2nd wife; that she died and he took a second, or a third wife, whom he mentions in his will as "Judith." Deacon John Rogers died at Weymouth, Mass., Feb. 11, 1661, and it is conjectured by Deane that he was a descendant of the Smithfield Martyr. His will follows:

"Deacon" John Rogers, in his will, dated "8-12-1660," proved April 13, 1661, mentions his wife Judith; his daughters, Mary Rane, wife of John Rane; "Liddia" White, wife of Joseph White; Hannah Pratt, wife of Samuel Pratt, and Sarah Rogers, who was then under eighteen years of age. He gives his wife a (contingent) legacy, and adds that "she may give it to whom she pleases, provided she gives it to Dea. Rogers' children." He gives her one cow and the use of the other, "except son John marry then one cow to be his."

The will provides that if John die without wife or child, certain property shall go to his son-in-law, Joseph White (subject to a payment to another son-in-law) and to his daughter Sarah. The will is utterly inconsistent with the existence of any other son than John, or any other daughter than those named.

The inventory was presented and sworn to by Judith Rogers and John Rogers.]

The children of Joseph White and his wife Lydia Rogers, were as follows:

7. JOSEPH, b. July 5, 1661.
8. THOMAS, b. April 1, 1665.
9. Ebenezer, b. Dec. 4, 1670, d. Aug. 27, 1726.
10. Lydia, b. Dec. 17, 1662.
11. SAMUEL, b. Feb. 14, 1666.
12. John, b. Dec. 3, 1668.
13. Ann, b. —.

14. Mary, b. —.
15. Experience, b. —.
16. Hannah, b. —.

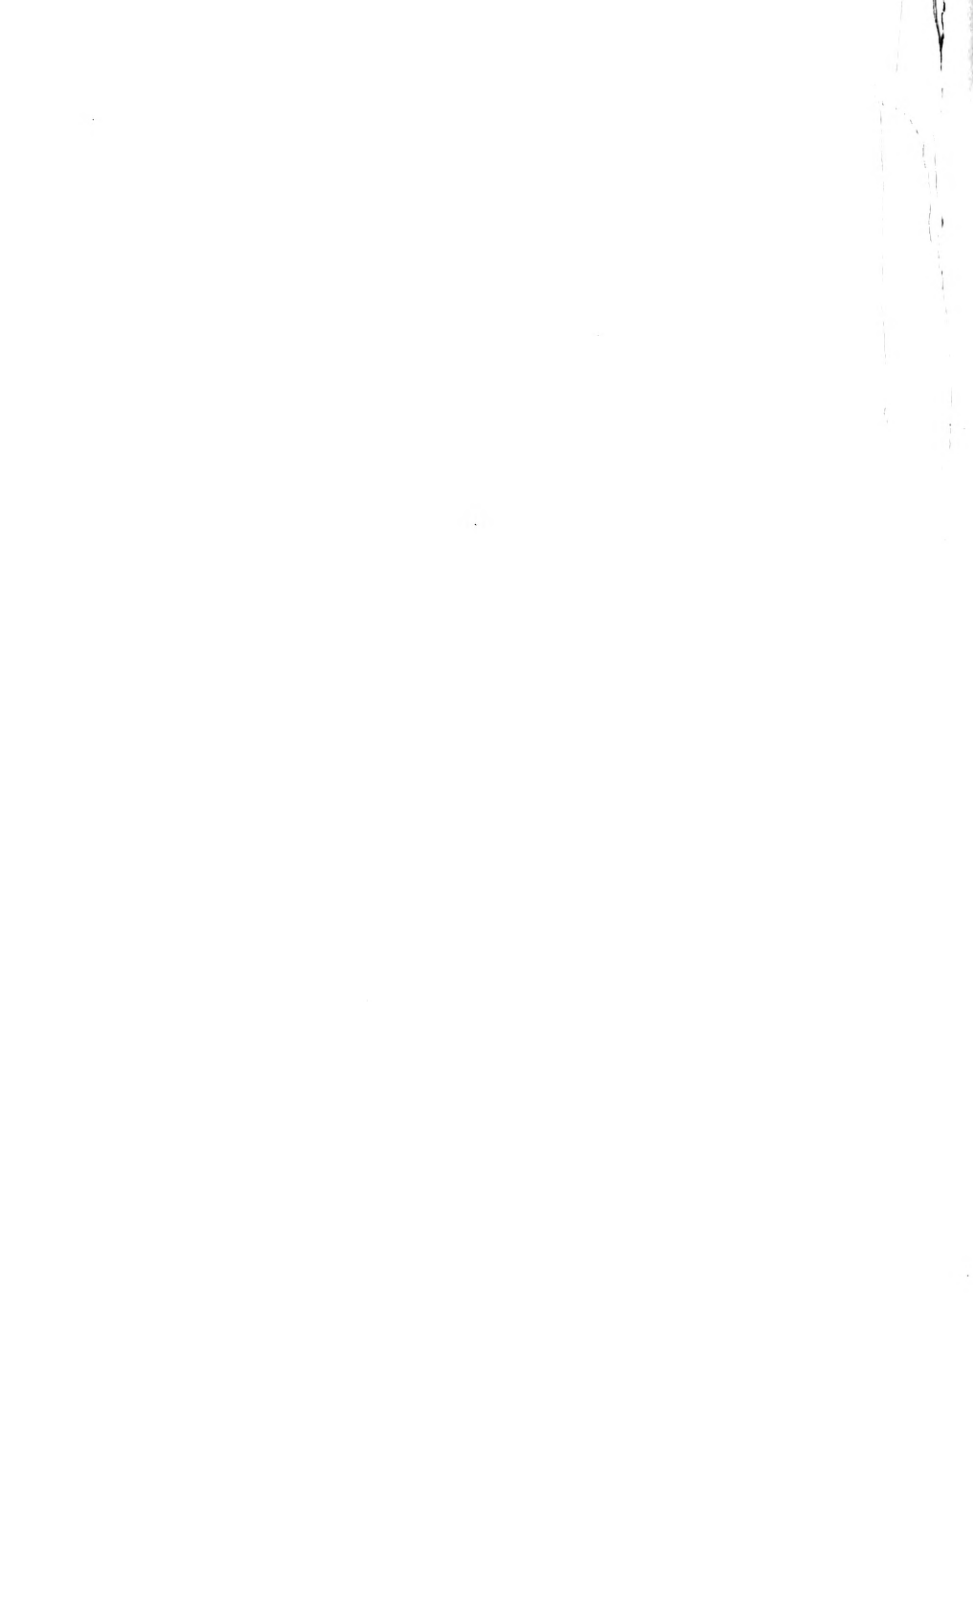

8. THOMAS WHITE, married Mehitabel —. She died Sept. 27, 1704, and he married (2) Mary —. They lived in Mendon, Mass., in which town in 1688, he is assessed "to pay the Minister" 17 shillings and one penny; his name appears in the Records of the Town as being assessed each year for this purpose. In 1704, March 6th, he is elected Selectman, occupying this office many years thereafter. Feb. 6, 1708, he appears to have been the Town Surveyor, they having paid him on this date "for running the line between Dedham and Mendon." At the same meeting he was one of a Committee of three "to give the Selectmen instructions for this year."

He was also on a Committee for the same purpose in 1710. On March 3, 1713, he is paid for 4 days "laying out Ministry and School lots and 2 days running lines."

On May 12, 1713, the Town Records mention his name as Thomas White, the Surveyor. A survey and plot of a grant of land, was made by Thomas White, Surveyor of the Town of Mendon, April 1, 1713, and the same may be found in the Archives of Massachusetts. On Sept. 21, 1714, the Town paid him for his "First survey of Cedar Swamps, 1 pound, 1 shilling," and "for surveying and plotting ye North purchase, 6 shillings," and "For 4 days circumferencing Cedar Swamps and running line with Sutton, 2 days, 1 shilling, 1 penny," and at the same meeting he and Benjamin Green were each paid for trip to Marlborough, 6 shillings. On Jan. 24, 1718, he appears as Sergeant Thomas White, and is elected as one of the Committee on Town Affairs. On Feb. 16, 1719, Sergeant Thomas White was elected Selectman, and Town Clerk, which offices he held, with that of Town Surveyor, for many years. In many of the divisions of Town lands, a lot is laid out for Thomas White.

He made his will Feb. 18, 1744, and bequeaths to his sons, Thomas, Ebenezer, Joseph, John, Samuel, Daniel, and states that Ebenezer has had his full portion previously. He gives his surveying instruments to his sons, mentions his daughter Mary (White) Alinsbury and daughter Mehitabel who had married, died and left children, to whom he bequeaths. He also mentions grand-daughter Johannah, whom he brought up.

Children:

By first wife:

17. Mehitabel, b. Jan. 20, 1688, m. Benjamin Darling, June 11, 1708.
18. Thomas, b. April 15, 1691.
19. Thankful, b. Aug. 3, 1693, d. young.

20. JOSEPH, b. Aug. 28, 1695.

21. John, b. March 12, 1698.

22. Samuel, b. Sept. 21, 1700.

23. Ebenezer, b. Feb. 4, 1703.

By second wife:

24. Daniel, b. June 18, 1708.

25. Mary, b. Nov. 29, 1711, m. Alinsbury.

20. JOSEPH WHITE, married Abigail Skinner, April 15, 1718, of Oxford, Mass., m. (2) Charity Skinner, Nov. 12, 1737.

Both of his wives were daughters of Abraham Skinner of Oxford, Mass., who afterwards lived at Glastonbury, Conn., and Colchester, Conn.

Soon after the birth of their daughter Abigail, Jan. 31, 1721, as recorded in the Town Records at Oxford, Mass., they moved to Glastonbury, Conn., where he purchased one hundred acres of land.

In the land records at Hebron, Conn., Joseph White buys 100 acres of Stephen Post, April 25, 1722. In the deed he is described as Joseph White of Oxford, County of Suffolk, Province of Massachusetts Bay. On Nov. 6, 1722, he sells land in Hebron, and on the same day buys of Joseph Dayley 30 acres in same town.

Joseph White of Colchester, Conn., buys 110 acres in Hebron, Conn., Sept. 19, 1724, of William Tulley of Saybrook, Conn. On April 23, 1740, he buys four acres adjoining land of John Root and Abraham Skinner, at Colchester, Conn.

It is apparent that he owned land in Glastonbury in 1747, as on Dec. 15, 1747, he deeds land to his son-in-law, Thomas Loveland. On Dec. 6, 1743, he deeds land in same town to Elizer Bingham. On March 5, 1743, he deeds land to Robert Loveland, located in Eastbury Parish, adjoining Heberren bounds. On July 20, 1752, he deeds land in same town to Peter Mutford of Marthas Vineyard, Mass., mariner.

On Feb. 2, 1758, "In consideration of love and affection for my son Joseph, Jr.," he deeds one third of his farm on the east side of the Connecticut River.

On Nov. 12, 1737, Abraham Skinner of Colchester, in the County of Hartford and State of Connecticut, "In consideration of love and good will, I bear my son Joseph White of Eastbury Parish, in the Town of Glastonbury, etc.," conveys to Joseph White one hundred acres of land in said Town.

On the Town Records of East Hampton, Conn., is this record, "Joseph White Senior in East Hampton Parish, in Chatham, died October ye 29th, 1772."

He made his will, dated Chatham, Conn., July 27, 1772, proved Nov. 7, 1772, in the Probate Court at Middletown, Conn., for Middlesex County. His will is as follows:

IN THE NAME OF GOD, AMEN.

This 27th day of July, Anno Domini, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy-two, I, Joseph White of Chatham, in the County of Hartford, and Colony of Connecticut, in New England, being of perfect mind and memory, Thanks be given to God, but advancing in years, and calling to mind the mortality of my body and knowing that it is appointed unto all men once to die, do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament, that is to say:

First and Principally.—I give and recommend my soul into the hands of God, who gave it, and my body I reccommend unto the earth, to be buried in decent Christian burial, at the discretion of my Executors, nothing doubting but at the general ressu-rection I shall receive the same by the mighty power of God: and as touching such wordly estate wherewith it hath pleased God to bless me in this life, I give, devise and dispose of the same in the following manner and form:

Imprimis—I will that my debts and funeral charges be paid and discharged.

Item—I give and bequeath unto my well beloved wife one cow and six sheep and all that she brought with her of household goods forever, and also all of the improvements of all my household goods during her natural life, as also the use and improvements of my dwelling house and barn during her natural life.

Item—I give my eldest son, Joseph White, considering how much I have already given him, I give him five shillings lawful money.

Item—I give and bequeath to my two grandsons, Thomas and Samuel White, the sons of my late son, Thomas White, thirty acres of land upon the south side of my home lot with my dwelling house and barn thereon standing after my above said wife's decease, to be equally divided between them. I give it to them and theirs forever.

Item—I give and bequeath to the children of my daughter Abigail Perrin and the children of my daughter Mary Loveland and to my daughter Ruth Sears all the remaining part of my personal or moveable estate not yet disposed of, and also all the remaining part of my lands and household goods after my wife's decease to be so divided that the children of each of my eldest daughters shall have one third part of it, and my daughter Ruth one third part.

I hereby constitute and appoint my well beloved wife Charity White and my son Elkannah Sears joint executrix and executor to this my last Will and Testament. And I do hereby revoke and disannul and make void all former Wills and Testaments by me heretofore made and declare this to be my last Will and Testament.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I, the said Joseph White, have hereunto set my hand and seal the date and year above written and in the 12th year of His Majesties Reign.

JOSEPH WHITE. [L. S.]

Signed, sealed and declared to be his last Will and Testament. In presence of John Norton, Eunice Norton, Eunice Norton, Junior.

TO ALL PEOPLE TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME: GREETING.

Know ye that I, Charity White, of Chatham, in the County of Hartford and Colony of Connecticut in New England, for the consideration of Twenty Pounds, lawful money received to my full satisfaction of Elkanah Sears of the same Chatham, County and Colony aforesaid, have leased and by these presents do lease, let and to farm let unto the said Elkanah Sears, his heirs and Assigns, two certain pieces of land lying in said Chatham, one piece being part of the Lot No. 129 in the three miles division, containing by estimation about thirty acres of land, being the whole of the land that my late and well beloved husband, Joseph White, owned at the time of his decease, be it more or less, and is bounded south partly on a Highway and partly on James Bills' land: West on the highway: North on said Sears' own land: East on James Bills' land. The other piece is part of the Lots No. 128 and 129 in the three miles division, containing thirty acres of land, being the land the above said Joseph White sold to Elkanah Sears in his lifetime: together with the dwelling house and barn standing on the first described piece of land. To have and to hold the above premises during my natural life unto him, the said Elkanah Sears, his heirs and assigns, to his and their own proper use and the improvement with full liberty to fell timber, plow the land, and to till it in every respect, as I, the said Charity White, had given me by the last Will and Testament of my late husband, Joseph White.

And furthermore, I, the said Charity White, covenant with the said Elkanah Sears, his heirs and assigns, that at and until the ensembling of these presents, that I have good right and lawful authority to lease out the above said premises, as it is above written, and that the same is free of all incumberances whatsoever.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 28th. day of January, 1773, and in the 13th year of his Majesties Reign.

CHARITY WHITE (L. S.)

Signed, sealed and delivered in presence of us. Nathaniel Goff, Jr. Elizabeth Wadams.

The following records of the children of Joseph White and his two wives, Abigail Skinner and Charity Skinner, are taken from the Town records at Oxford, Mass., the Town Records of Hebron, Conn., and Chatham, Conn., and the records of the First Church of East Hampton, Conn.

The record of the dates of birth of these children, is in the Town books of Hebron, one of which is the date of birth of his daughter, Abigail, which being the same date as the record of this daughter at Oxford, Mass., proves that he is the same Joseph White, as described in his marriage record at Oxford, Mass., which states that he is from Mendon, Mass.

53. David, b. April 4, 1795.

30. RUTH WHITE, married June 6, 1757, Capt. Elkanah Sears, born in Harwich, Mass., April 12, 1734, and died in Easthampton, Conn., Nov. 26, 1816, aged 83 years. He was son of Joshua—Paul—Paul—Richard, who was born in Marblehead, Mass., about 1637, died at Yarmouth, Mass., Feb., 20, 1707. She died March 9, 1823, aged 90 years.

Elkanah Sears came to Middletown, Conn., with his parents in 1746, and after his marriage in 1757, lived on a farm just west of Pocotopang Lake, East Hampton, Conn. Many personal anecdotes are related of him.

He was a tall, heavily built man, very strong and fearless. After the Revolutionary War broke out, he equipped and commanded a vessel commissioned as a privateer to prey on British Commerce. His vessel was captured and Captain Sears and one of his men were taken prisoners and confined on board a British War Ship. From what they heard and saw they expected that preparations were making for their summary execution and concluding that they had rather trust their necks in the water, than to a rope, they eluded the sentinel about midnight, and let themselves down into the water, but were soon discovered, and fired upon from the ship. Captain Sears reached the shore in safety and taking a boat went out and picked up his man, whose strength had given out, both finally escaped.

After the war he became extensively engaged in agricultural pursuits and the cooperage business.

On March 28, 1757, he buys 14 acres in Middletown, Conn., of Rebecca Sears.

He was Executor of the last Will and Testament of Mr. Joseph White, died 1772, his father-in-law.

He was appointed Guardian of Thomas White a minor son of Thomas White, died 1769.

167. EBENEZER, b. Dec. 21, 1709, at Weymouth, Mass.

165. NATHANIEL WHITE, was born in 1690, according to Alden's Early History of the Medical Profession, in the County of Norfolk, Mass., and to the inscription on his tombstone, or in 1701, as stated by Vinton, in his White Genealogy. He graduated from Harvard College in 1725, and was a man of much talent and eminent in his profession, although a very eccentric person. It is asserted that when he was summoned to a patient in stormy weather, he frequently would refuse to go, saying, "The weather is not fit for anyone to go out," but the messenger on his return usually found him, with his saddle-bags, at the bedside of his patient. He resided on the corner of Main and Pond streets, the site of the house formerly occupied by Dr. Greely, dentist. He married his first wife, Sarah Lovell,

April 27, 1726, who died March 15, 1733; his second, Ruth Holbrook, April 15, 1742, who died May, 1752, aged thirty-seven; his third wife, widow Abigail Keith of Bridgewater, July 1, 1755. He was the son of Deacon Thomas White, grandson of Ebenezer White, and great-grandson of Thomas White, who was admitted as "being then and previously an inhabitant of Weymouth and member of the Church."

Dr. Nathaniel White, was the son of Deacon Thomas and Mary (White-White), born in Weymouth, Sept. 4, 1701. His mother was the daughter of James and Sarah (Baker) White of Dorchester, and granddaughter of Edward White, the first of the name who settled in that town.

As Deacon Thomas and Mary White were not married until 1700 and he then only twenty-seven years old, Nathaniel could not have been born earlier than the above date, and the date upon his gravestone is evidently an error. His age upon the Town records is put down as fifty-eight. These facts agree with the record of Col. Asa White, one of the family born in 1736.

In the old town records may be seen the following: "March 13, 1727, Voted at the aforesaid meeting whether the Town will give to Doctor White five acres of land below —hill that was formerly granted to John Vinson, provided the said Doctor White continues in the Town of Weymouth, and in the practice of physic, and in case he shall remove out of Town, said White agrees to purchase said land, or to return it to the Town again." It passed in the affirmative.

Where the first and third wives of Dr. White lie buried is not known, but in the Highland Cemetery, South Weymouth, on a quaint old moss covered, double slate headstone, the following inscription is still to be made out, although some of the words are imperfect:

“Here lies interd ye Body of Doctr. Nathaniel White, who departed this life, Nov. 23, 1758, in ye 68th. year of his age.”

“Here lies buried ye body of Mrs. Ruth White, wife of Doc. Nathaniel White, who died 1752, in ye 57th. year of Her Age.”
